Group Study Exchange

Outstanding young business and professional people sought for a vocational and cultural study tour to North Carolina in 2010.

Rotary clubs are seeking outstanding business and professional people for a vocational and cultural study tour to visit : North Carolina for four weeks during March/April 2010 through the Group Study Exchange Program of the Rotary Foundation.

The program strives to improve international understanding by enabling people from different countries to learn from each other on a personal level. While abroad, team members stay with Rotarians to observe their host's way of life and study the nation's economic, social and cultural characteristics through travel and discussions within participating Rotary districts. Team members also have an opportunity to meet their professional counterparts. Travel and accommodation is fully funded by the Rotary Foundation, local Rotary Clubs and Rotarians.

Applicants need to be: Australian citizens; aged between 25 and 40; committed and enthusiastic business people or professionals; personable, articulate, cooperative and able to fulfill the rigorous demands of international travel; and, able to participate in an intensive itinerary. Applicants need also to be employed or reside in Rotary District 9640 and have been employed in their business or profession for a minimum of two years. Rotarians and relatives of Rotarians are not eligible to apply.

Applications and further information can be obtained by contacting your local Rotary club, visiting Web. Site www.rotary9640.org, link D 9640 info then Rotary Foundation or Ian Wilson at ianwil@bigpond.net.au. Applications must be lodged by 22 September 2009.
